Letter To The President

Good day aviators,

Good day aviators,

I don't have a lot of new information as I haven't flown much this month. I do have a little news though, I have talked Taylor (my girlfriend that many of you met at the Christmas party) to taking flight lessons.

She has 3 hours under her belt. I hope she hangs in there to get her PPL. Perhaps I can talk her into membership with KPA.

I do have a future flight planned to rescue a dog and her puppies flying from Dexter Mo. to Great bend Kansas. I was going to fly her out the day after Christmas but she showed signs of going into labor, so we decided to wait to make the trip till it was safer for everyone. I will post pictures of the rescue and updates.

Also I am flying into Stearman this Sunday 31st about 3-3:30 for a 500 hour celebration if anyone would be willing to join us. I
